2. Compensation & Payment. Price for the Products or Services shall be as set out in the Purchase Order (the "Price") and there shall be no additional charges or fees, including shipping and handling charges, unless specifically agreed to by Solotech and Seller in writing and prior to the delivery of the Products or performance of the Services. Seller shall issue to Solotech an invoice within 30 days following delivery of all Products or the performance of all Services. Unless otherwise agreed to by Solotech in writing, Solotech shall pay the invoice within 45 days from the date of receipt of the invoice.

3. Taxes. Taxes on Products or Services pursuant to this Agreement, including any sales, value added or excise taxes (the "Taxes") shall be each party's responsibility, as provided by applicable law. Neither party is responsible for the other party's income taxes or net or gross capital taxes. Seller shall invoice Solotech the amount of the Taxes it is required to collect pursuant to applicable law and shall remit such Taxes to the appropriate governmental authorities. Neither party is responsible for the other party's income taxes or net or gross capital taxes. If any compensation payable by Solotech to the Seller is subject to withholding, Solotech shall withhold the prescribed amount and shall remit it to the appropriate governmental authorities. The parties agree to collaborate to obtain relevant tax reduction or exemption certificates, if any.

4. Delivery. Seller shall deliver the Products or perform the Services no later than by the delivery date listed on the Purchase Order or as otherwise agreed in writing between Seller and Solotech (the "Delivery Date"). If Seller is unable to, or reasonably anticipates that it will be unable to meet the Delivery Date, then Seller shall promptly notify Solotech with detail of the reasons for the failure, the steps Seller is taking to mitigate the failure and the earliest possible date of delivery. Unless Solotech expressly agrees in writing to a new delivery date, Seller's failure to timely deliver Products or perform the Services by the Delivery Date shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement and Seller agrees that Solotech may claim all expenses, fees or cost incurred by Solotech as a result of such failure.

5. Title, Risk of Loss & Inspection. Risk of loss in the Products shall pass to Solotech upon receipt of the Products by Solotech at the delivery point specified on the Purchase Order. Title to the Products shall pass to Solotech upon payment of the Price. Within a reasonable time upon delivery, Solotech may inspect and reject Products or Services that do not conform with any term of the Purchase Order or the Specifications or that are visibly damaged by giving written notice to Seller in which case, at Solotech's option, Seller shall promptly replace the Products or the Services or reimburse Solotech, the whole at Seller's expense.

6. Testing and Acceptance. Promptly following receipt of the Products and where applicable, Solotech shall conduct tests to ensure all Products are working properly. Upon the successful completion of the tests, Solotech shall notify in writing the Seller of the acceptance of the Products. Seller shall promptly remedy any defects identified during the testing period or reimburse Solotech, in Solotech's discretion and the whole at Seller's expense.

7. Specifications. All specifications, plans, drawings, process information, patterns or designs (collectively, the "Specifications") supplied by Solotech to Seller in connection with this Agreement shall remain the property of Solotech, as well as any invention or improvement made by Seller attributable in whole or in part to such Specifications. Any Specification supplied by Solotech to Seller must be returned to Solotech upon request by Solotech or termination of this Agreement.

8. Intellectual Property. Seller warrants that the Products or the Services do not infringe upon, misappropriate, or constitute an unauthorized use of any patent, trade secret, copyright, trademark or other intellectual property right, and Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless Solotech, its directors, officers, employees, shareholders and parent and affiliated companies ("Solotech Indemnitees") from and against any and all demands, claims, proceedings, actions, losses, damages, liabilities, costs or expenses of any nature whatsoever (including, without limitation, reasonable costs of attorneys', consultants' and experts' fees) asserted against or incurred by any Solotech Indemnitee by reason of, resulting from, or arising in connection with any warranty given by Seller in this section. If the provision of Services or the Products include programs, systems, data, software or the preparation and submission of deliverables or other documents made for Solotech (the "Deliverables"), all intellectual property rights of the Seller in such Deliverables shall be assigned and transferred to Solotech upon full payment of the Price. To the extent that pre-existing intellectual property rights are contained in the Products or Deliverables, Seller shall retain its pre-existing intellectual property rights in such Products or Deliverables and shall grant Solotech a worldwide, irrevocable, non-exclusive, fully paid, royalty-free right and license to and to authorize others to use, execute, reproduce, display, perform, distribute and prepare derivative works of such pre-existing intellectual property rights.

9. Changes & Additional Work. Solotech may, at any time, by written order (a "Change Order"), request changes to the Products, Services, or the Delivery Date. Within 5 business days after receiving a Change Order, Seller shall either accept the Change Order, or furnish to Solotech in writing the proposed changes to the Prices, Products, Services or the Delivery Date attributable to the Change Order. Seller's failure to advise Solotech in writing within 5 business days after receipt of a Change Order of the effect of any requested changes shall constitute Seller's consent to conform to the Change Order as submitted by Solotech. If Seller advises Solotech in writing of any proposed changes to the Prices, Products, Services or the Delivery Date attributable to the Change Order, an adjustment to the Prices, Products, Services or the Delivery Date will be negotiated. In the event of a disagreement concerning a Change Order, Seller shall proceed as required by the Change Order. No Change Order shall invalidate this Agreement, and all Change Orders shall be subject to this Agreement.

10. Warranty. Seller warrants for a period of 1 year after Solotech's receipt of the Products or Services that the Products and Services: (i) shall strictly conform to the Specifications or the Purchase Order; (ii) shall be free of defects in material, workmanship or design; (iii) shall be of merchantable quality; (iv) shall be new, unless otherwise specified; (v) shall be free from all liens, charges, hypothecs or other registrations; and (vi) are labelled in conformity with any law, ordinance, code and regulation applicable, including regarding language requirements. Seller further represents and warrants that it has good and marketable title in the Products. The warranties set forth herein shall be in addition to any other applicable warranties, express, implied, or statutory, and shall survive any inspection, delivery, acceptance or payment by Solotech. Notwithstanding any payment by Solotech or failure by Solotech to discover or reject defective material and workmanship, if any of the Products or Services fails to comply with any warranty or term or condition of this Agreement, Seller shall promptly correct such defect, at Solotech's option, by replacing or by reimbursing Solotech for the defective Products or Services, the whole at Seller's expense following notice of such defect from Solotech. Notice of breach of these warranties shall be deemed sufficient if given within 120 days after discovery thereof by Solotech. If Seller fails to so act within 5 business days of receiving such notice from Solotech, Solotech may, at its option, cancel this Agreement by giving Seller written notice, procure the Products or Services elsewhere, and charge Seller with any costs or losses incurred, in addition to its other rights and remedies hereunder and at law. The provisions of this section 10 also apply to any work performed by employees or subcontractors of the Seller.

11. Permits, Licenses, & Compliance with Law. Seller, at its sole cost and expense, shall procure all necessary permits and licenses for delivery of the Products or Services, and shall comply with any law, ordinance, code and regulation applicable thereto (including without limitation, all health and safety laws). In addition, Seller shall comply with all applicable laws, statutes, regulations, and codes relating to prevention of modern slavery and forced labor, including Solotech's code of ethics and policies, and shall implement and maintain policies and procedures to ensure Seller's compliance with its obligations under this section. Seller shall promptly notify Solotech in writing if it becomes aware of any breach or potential breach of its obligations under this section. Solotech reserves the right to terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to the Seller if Solotech has reason to believe that the Seller has failed to comply with its obligations under this section. Furthermore, Seller understands and agrees that if any governmental authority in any country concludes that the Products or a portion of the Products used forced labor or other form of modern slavery in their production or manufacture, the Products could be seized and destroyed by such authority and Solotech could be charged with fines and penalties. In such event, Seller agrees that Solotech shall not be required to pay Seller the Price of the seized Products and Seller agrees to indemnify Solotech for any damage suffered by Solotech.
